The official website of District Budgam was launched with two objectives. The first one was to introduce the district to the citizens and thereby highlight the tourism, handicrafts, travel and developmental activities. The second was to reach out to the citizens to seek their comments, feedback and suggestions. Thus this web site has pages designed with both these aims. Besides there are “current updates”, “downloads” and the “who is who” sections for the public.

Now is the age of e-Governance. We will be increasing our presence digitally. The website will soon be upgraded. It is being developed on S3WaaS platform which will be more secure, scalable and accessible. We are trying it to be bi-lingual to increase the coverage.

I have already reviewed the District Administration’s social media channels like Facebook, Twitter and YouTube for the outreach.

It will be our endeavour to interact closely with the common man and this web site along with the social media serves as a medium through which we invite suggestions from general public in an effort towards making the administration more responsive and efficient. I hope the information of the website would be beneficial to the end-user.
